Upholding solidarity and philanthropic spirit amid great adversity Bellevue Bohol spearheads relief efforts for typhoon Odette-hit communities

Bohol, Philippines - Staying true to its underlying commitment amid crisis – The Bellevue Resort has been continuing its advocacy in providing meaningful hospitality service into helping the needs of the community, to inspire and move people into positive actions.

With many communities deeply affected by the super typhoon Odette in Bohol, The Bellevue Resort led initiatives and various donation drives aiming to raise funds to deliver aid to the remote victims – organizing relief operations and mobilizing volunteers to extend immediate assistance in disaster-affected communities in the province.

Bellevue Bohol volunteers distributed relief packs with rice, salt, sugar, canned goods, blankets, and hygiene kits.

The Resort's relief operations helped respond to thousands of families in need which was made possible with the assistance and support of its partners, donors, and volunteers.

The typhoon Odette landfall caused massive devastation which affected the water supply in the province and power lines, causing blackouts. A hundred Boholano indigent families can now start lighting their way to rehabilitation with solar-powered lamps donated by The Bellevue Group.

The 5-star resort also provided clean water to local communities with over a thousand families in Panglao Island to help them during the water scarcity.

The Bellevue Resort extends their gratitude to those who helped and contributed to the recovery efforts for Bohol, like actress Gabbi Garcia, actor Khalil Ramos, the Bohol External Resources Facilitation Unit known as Hugop Bohol, and to all those who donated and tirelessly helped in its relief operations that truly uphold solidarity and philanthropic spirit amid great adversity.

Since its opening in 2013, the luxurious and eco-friendly resort has been consistently spearheading meaningful initiatives — leading responsible tourism in Bohol, in its efforts to highlight the importance of playing an active role in helping the community where it operates.

The Bellevue Resort – Bohol is a luxury 5-star resort perched on the serene Doljo Beach in Panglao, Bohol. For more information about the resort, visit www.thebellevue.com or call (038) 422-2222.
